

GENAI BINGO

GENERATIVE AI & MATHEMATICS

FIND A COLLEAGUE
FOR EACH SQUARE
ONE NAME PER SQUARE

Has used ChatGPT to explain a math concept <hr/>	Asked an AI to solve a calculus problem <hr/>	Has a written AI policy in their syllabus <hr/>	Never used a generative AI tool <hr/>	Caught a math error in an AI response <hr/>
Worries AI will hurt student learning <hr/>	Used AI to write feedback on student work <hr/>	Teaches a course where students regularly use AI <hr/>	Has attended a workshop or webinar on AI <hr/>	Used Wolfram Alpha before Nov. 2022 <hr/>
Thinks AI could save them time on course prep <hr/>	Has asked a student about their AI use <hr/>	★ FREE ★ You showed up today!	Used AI to generate a quiz or exam question <hr/>	Believes AI makes some math skills obsolete <hr/>
Disagrees with a colleague about AI use in class <hr/>	Used AI to draft an in-class activity <hr/>	Has students who openly use AI on homework <hr/>	Tried prompting AI and got a wrong answer <hr/>	Feels behind on AI compared to colleagues <hr/>
Excited about AI possibilities in teaching <hr/>	Has used GenAI to help teach proofs <hr/>	Has found a productive way to use GenAI in lower-level math classes <hr/>	Curious but unsure where to start with AI <hr/>	Would use AI more if they had more time <hr/>

Write a colleague's name in the space below each description · One colleague per square · Complete a row, column, or diagonal to call BINGO!

GenAI BINGO © 2026 by Angie Hodge-Zickerman & Cindy S. York is licensed under Creative Commons Attribution-NonCommercial-ShareAlike 4.0 International. To view a copy of this license, visit <https://creativecommons.org/licenses/by-nc-sa/4.0/>